Subject to your approval, we are prepared to allot [] to the DDA to get these five initiatives underway. As we understand it, OS will pursue System Auditing and Accountability, Stronger Access and Authentication Controls, and Control of Storage Media; OC will pursue Network Security, and Advanced Encryption Techniques. The work will be consistent with that outlined in the November 1984 report Computer Security, Investment Strategy, FY 1985-91.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Computer Security Working Group

FROM: Charles A. Briggs
Executive DirectorSUBJECT: Development of an Investment Strategy
on Computer Security []

1. Information handling is the subject of a major goal in the 1984 Addendum to the CIA Strategic Plan (see pages 7-9 of the attached copy). The Addendum calls for the development of investment strategies in several areas in which our needs are so urgent that we must set the pace in research, development, and applications. Computer security is one of these areas. []

2. The work that your Working Group members and the Community's Computer Security project have already done gives us an important leg up on the problem. I would like you to take responsibility for the development of the required investment strategy, centering your efforts on actions the Agency should take on its own in this area over the next 5-10 years without duplicating other Community activities. The strategy should be prepared for review by the Information Systems Board as soon as possible, in any case no later than November 1984. []

5 APR 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration
Deputy Director for Operations
Deputy Director for Intelligence
Deputy Director for Science and Technology
General Counsel
Inspector General
Comptroller

25X1 SUBJECT: Addendum to CIA Strategic Plan, 1982-1992 []

1. This memorandum transmits the 1984 Addendum to the Strategic Plan which, like the original Plan, distills our thoughts about crucial long-term goals and programs. The Addendum and the Plan should focus our thinking about priorities for the FY 1986-90 program budget, as we seek to develop the capabilities we will need beyond that period. []

2. A number of themes not specifically addressed in the Addendum require close and continuing attention -- our treaty monitoring capabilities and the security of sources and methods, for example, and the need to maintain our position on the leading edge of technology in areas that are unique and critical to us. We have chosen, however, to concentrate in the Addendum on a limited number of concerns which must receive attention now if we are to achieve the goals outlined in the Strategic Plan. The most important of these concerns center on our future manpower and information handling needs. []

3. The Addendum assigns responsibility for several remedial actions to be completed by year's end. I have asked the Planning Staff to keep me abreast of progress on the action items, particularly those that will involve review by the Executive Committee upon completion. []

4. I want to express my appreciation for the contributions to the strategic planning process you and your staffs have made through the Interdirectorate Planning Group (IPG). Representing your collective views, the IPG has proven to be a useful mechanism to help develop our long-range strategy. I will look to the IPG this year to assist the Planning Staff in monitoring progress on the implementation of the actions called for in the Addendum. []
